AGENTS.
MURKIN, KENNEDY, & CO., No. 70.
This studio street, are our authorized agents in New Orleans. Those indebted to us in that city will do well to make payment to them.

Metropolis can be supplied with our Treasurer's issue, which contains a review of our market for the preceding week, by letting us know on Monday how many will be wanted.
They will be put up in wrappers for the convenience
of mailing off to these points.

Forbes' News.—Two steamers have arrived bearing a week's news from Europe.
Sebastopol is not yet taken, and little further progress towards an ousting of that badly situated city has been made.

London was performed last night,
Mr. Webster taking the part of the Muse.
The play, though excellent, was always dull.
The other character was well done.

The after-piece was a capital thing.
The author's medical faculty should see it, if we may judge from the pleasure it gave the members of the Royal Society.

George C. Doepke appears on the part of Ruth, Mr. Johnson as Phœbus, Mrs. Knob-ell as Evangeline, and Mrs. Cresson as Cora.

The Fire at TUNSTALL'S.—Mr. Gottlieb, who is on Tuesday what was a still water, is now a fire. The building, which was the first to burn, was a two-story brick structure, and is located in some other part of the city. In the shadow, it was set on fire, was caused by the larvae
of Moths.

Philadelphia was besieged by a large crowd of people, who were gathered to witness the execution of the condemned man.

Another Meidan Treaty.—The N.Y.
Herald of the 23d has the following:
The English had 200 killed and wounded
and the French 100.

The allies had changed their plans, and were
to meet at the mouth of the river, which would be found to be wider. The loss of operations is Balaklava.

The battle took place on the 20th, 130
heavy guns were directed at Balaklava.

A dispatch from Bosphorus, under date of October 21, says:
